The District Collector/District Magistrate

District: Supaul

State: Bihar

Subject: Requesting expeditious action in ensuring that the list of persons (list attached) receive the entitlement under the Covid-19 relief measures announced by the Government of India and the State Government

Sir/Madam,

The NCDHR, a NGO/Civil society network, joined hands with the National Campaign on Dalit Human Rights (NCDHR), New Delhi, to conduct an inclusion assessment of the extent of realisation of COVID19 schemes by the vulnerable communities. Through the mobile app 'WeClaim', the assessment is being conducted across many states.

With reference to the COVID19 relief package announced by the Central and State Governments, we would like to bring to your notice that a number of persons have not received the benefits that they are entitled to as per the following scheme which is part of the Relief Package. We have received this information telephonically from those persons.

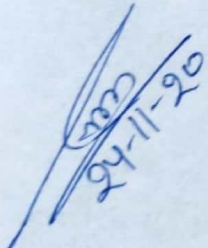

The scheme : ICDS.

The names and details of Persons that have not yet received the benefit are listed in the attachment: List of ICDS beneficiaries in (Supaul) District who have not received Anganwadi Food and Material delivered at home in April 2020

We request you to consider the cases of the persons in the attached list with urgency and ensure that they receive the benefit without any further delay

Sincerely,

Vidya Sagar,
District President
